WOULD AID SOTTON FARMERS

Georgia Agricultural Commissioner Seeks Enactment of Hay Law. Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 3.—Gov. Hugh Dorsey yesterday had under advisement a request from Commissioner of Agriculture J. J. Brown for an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose of enacting a stay law on mortgages for grain 12 months.

The Governor has requested Commissioner Brown to prepare a written memorandum on the subject, which the latter will do.

In a conference with the Governor Mr. Brown called attention to numerous cases where live stock and implements of farmers had been sold under foreclosure proceedings to pay for farm supplies, and expressed the opinion that general foreclosures should they be restored to, would deprive farmers of the means of producing a crop next year, would benefit creditors very little and bring on complete agricultural demoralization. The Commissioner expressed the belief that it would be necessary for similar laws to be enacted by all the Cotton States to get the full benefit of such an expedient.
